SUMMARY.

Keeping Derwentwater always on your right side this is a great way check out some of the best of the Northern Lakes. If you have the time and energy a detour to Ashness Bridge and Surprise View

ROUTE DESCRIPTION.

1. Leaving the Theatre by the Lake, take the path South leading shortly to the Borrowdale road. The first few miles takes advantage of the paths which keep left and right of the main road until finally, after the Lodore Falls hotel, the path turns inwards towards the South of the Lake and over a foot bridge, joining the Cumbria Way path which swings back North up the Western shore of Derwent Water.
2. With spectacular views across the lake and interesting trails and woodland, the route finally brings you full circle to Keswick where it's a short warm-down back to the Theatre by the Lake.
